Day 2 Rajkot Local Sightseeing

10 Feb 2025

Service: Rajkot Local Sightseeing

After breakfast, visit:

Rampura Wildlife Sanctuary: Perfect for nature lovers and bird watchers.

Rampura Wildlife Sanctuary is the wooded area in an arid zone otherwise devoid of any noteworthy tree growth. The shrubby land interspersed with patches of grasses, harbours large number of species of plants, birds and mammals. This was declared a sanctuary in November 1988.

The terrain is plain in the middle of the sanctuary and rising and falling elsewhere. The hillocks on the fringes mark the boundary of the area. The sanctuary is an important area for the preservation of over 280 species of plants, over 130 species of birds and more than 20 species of mammals and equal number of birds species and many reptiles.

Pradyuman Zoological Park & Vintage Car Museum Gondal: Home to wildlife and rare vintage cars. (Depends on the time)

Pradhyuman Zoological Park is located near Lalpari Lake in Rajkot, Gujarat. It is commonly referred to as the Pradhyuman/Rajkot Prani Sanghralaya. The area covered by the park is 137 acres wide. Many locals and tourists visit this place as a popular picnic destination as an excursion or a school tour visit.

The royal collection of cars consists of 32 vehicles, from a 1907 car made by the New Engine Company Acton and a 1935 vintage Mercedes saloon to racing cars raced by the present Maharaja of Gondal. Most are still in working condition. The Delage D8, Daimler, and the grand 1935 Mercedes seven-seat saloon are examples of great European cars of the 1920s and '30s.
