3rd May 2023: Arrival at Leh

Your journey begins with one of the most scenic flights in the world. After the aerial journey, you will finally land in Leh, where you can rest and get acclimatised through the morning.

After lunch, you will begin your sightseeing by visiting the Japanese Peace Pagoda, followed by the Shanti Stupa, and lastly, the Leh Palace. After that, you can explore the main market and also pick up the essentials that you require for the tour. You can also tread around town and have a steaming cup of coffee in one of the many quaint cafes that are spread about.

Your exciting first day will end with dinner and an overnight stay at the Ladakh Residency Hotel.

4th May 2023: Local Sightseeing in Leh

After a delicious breakfast, you will embark on magnificent terrain that will take you to Alchi and Likir Monasteries.

The Alchi Monastic complex, also known as Alchi Choskor, consists of four different settlements. Among these, the 900 years old Alchi Monastery is the oldest. The uniqueness of this monastery is the ancient and fascinating wall paintings that will take your breath away. This breathtaking Alchi Monastery is administered by the Likir Monastery. It has more than 120 devoted monks in attendance as well as an active school to tutelage the young monks.

After this sacred outing, you will visit the renowned Hall of Fame, which is a museum built in honour of all the battles fought in this sector, post-independence. Then, you will head to Magnetic Hill and Gurudwara Pathar Sahib. At Sangam Point, confluence of the Indus and Zaskar rivers, you can click pictures and capture all the precious moments.

After this thrilling day, you will return to Leh with dinner and an overnight stay at the Ladakh Residency Hotel.

5th May 2023: Leh to Nubra Valley

Post breakfast, you will head for a drive to Khardung La Pass, the highest motorable road in the world. It is a two-hour adventurous voyage with a stunning landscape. It is the same landscape that has witnessed numerous rally races in the past few years. After a memorable time spent at Khardung La Pass, you will drive down to Nubra Valley.

Upon arrival, you will check in to the resort. Post lunch, you can drive down to the Sumur village and spend an afternoon at the Samstanling Monastery for some peace and tranquillity.

This adventurous day will end with dinner and an overnight stay at the Osay Khar Resort.

6th May 2023: Nubra Valley

After breakfast, you will visit the penultimate village from the Pakistan border, Turtuk Village. It is an enchanting little village located on two sides of a roaring river. This village is highly distinguishable from the other parts of Ladakh as it was part of Pakistan until the 1971 war.

While returning from this beautiful village, you will visit the Diskit Monastery which captures the bird's eye view of the whole mesmerising valley. After this slice of heaven, you can visit the sand dunes at Hunder Village. There, you can opt for a ride on the double-humped Bactrian Camels.

After a heavenly day, you will return to the hotel by the evening. The day will end with dinner and an overnight stay at the Osay Khar Resort.

7th May 2023: Nubra Valley - Pangong

After breakfast, you will head straight to Pangong from Nubra, via the quaint village of Shayok. This route officially opened a few years ago. It takes you to the lake through the smaller and unexplored villages where you can witness the rural Ladakhi life.

It takes around four hours to reach the lake. The famous Pangong Tso Lake will cast a spell on you, the moment your eyes land on it. You can enjoy the splendour of the lake for a few hours, click pictures and capture the lovely moments that you can store for eternity.

After this divine day, you will camp in tents near the lake. The day will end with a pleasant overnight stay in the outdoor tent and dinner.
